ABOUT US

The International Conference on Materials for Advanced Technologies (ICMAT) is a premier global platform uniting leading scientists, researchers, and industry partners to advance the frontiers of materials science. Building on a strong legacy, this biennial conference continues to drive interdisciplinary exchange, collaboration, and innovation across academia and industry.

ICMAT at a glance:

- 2,250+ participants anticipated at ICMAT 2027
- 2,000+ delegates consistently across editions
- 25,000+ participants across the series since event inception
- 28 Nobel Laureates and hundreds of distinguished speakers previously featured
- 9 broad themes and 39 technical symposia at ICMAT 2027
- Joint Symposia/Workshops with Professional Societies/Companies from other countries

ICMAT 2027 will deliver a high-impact, world-class programme featuring globally renowned plenary and keynote speakers, alongside an expansive suite of specialised symposia at the forefront of materials science. A dynamic exhibition and curated networking experiences will bring together academia, research institutions, and industry — creating a powerful environment for connection, collaboration, and innovation.

We invite organisations to participate as sponsors and exhibitors in this highly anticipated event. Engage a global audience of decision-makers and innovators, elevate your brand, and be part of shaping the future of materials science.

Detailed sponsorship opportunities are outlined in the attached prospectus. We would be delighted to explore tailored partnerships with you.

We look forward to welcoming your organisation to ICMAT 2027!
